

Rules & Regulations

- Each participation should consist of a maximum THREE (3) members and no additional members are allowed.
- Each participation must select ONLY ONE (1) project.
- The leader of the project must be a student.
- Participants are required to fill out an individual entry form for each invention.
- An innovation that is a copy of another work will be disqualified.

- An innovation that has the potential to enrage the public or include values that are incompatible with morality, public health or welfare will be disqualified.
- An innovation that may be subject to intellectual property (IP) conflicts or disagreements will be disqualified.
- Participants are responsible for obtaining Intellectual Property (IP) protection for their exhibitions.

- The jurors or members of the organizing committee are not responsible for any issues arising from or associated with the competition results or actions.
- The reviewers' decisions are final, and no disputes or appeals will be entertained.
- The cash prizes will be awarded in Malaysia Ringgit (MYR).
- All matters not stated in this Rules and Guidelines paper or any exclusion to the rules and all other unexpected matters and issues on interpretation will be decided by the organizing committee of the competition.